No. 11,195, Erik Heine, Appellant, vs.
Juri Raus, Appellee.

Gentlemen:

I received from the clerk of the United States District Court at Baltimore, Maryland, the record on appeal in the above-entitled case, and I have today filed the record and docketed the appeal.

I am enclosing order of appearance to be executed on behalf of the appellee, which you will please sign and return.

It cannot be determined at this time the term at which the case will be set down for argument. When that time is determined, counsel will be advised amply in advance.

Under Rule 10 of this Court, the record will not have to be printed. It is suggested that you carefully read this rule.

Pursuant to the rules twenty-five copies of the appellant's printed brief and appendix shall be filed in this office on or before March 8, 1967, and twenty-five copies of the appellee's printed brief and appendix shall be filed in this office on or before April 7, 1967.

The rules provide that on or before the day upon which any brief is filed in this office, the party on whose behalf the brief is filed or his counsel shall cause three copies of the brief to be served personally or by mail upon counsel of record, if any, for each adverse party, and, if none, upon the adverse parties.

It is suggested that you file your brief and appendix within the time provided. I have been directed to advise counsel that briefs are expected to be filed on time and that no extensions will be granted.

In printing briefs and appendices strict compliance with the rules is required.

Very truly yours,

Maurice S. Dean,
Clerk
